Valutek Launches Loyalty Program for Cleanroom Customers

Member benefits include reduced pricing, annual rebate and custom catalog

PHOENIX (FEBRUARY 2011) — In February, Valutek, an industry-leading manufacturer of cleanroom consumables, launches its first-ever Loyalty Program. Based on the needs and desires of its customers, the company has designed a program that offers valuable benefits to repeat clients.

Members of the program will receive improved pricing on best-quality products that include cleanroom wipers, adhesive “tacky” mats, disposable gloves, disposable apparel and more. “Due to better sourcing of raw materials, negotiation of freight costs and the addition of two distribution centers in Asia, we are able to offer the best possible pricing to our loyal customers,” explains Gary Coraggio, Sales and Marketing Director.

Members will also receive a dedicated Sales Executive, who will help guarantee their pricing structure, notify them of specials and promotions, and help cleanroom professionals better manage their inventory.

On top of those benefits, members will also receive an annual rebate to be used toward future Valutek purchases and a custom, online catalog through the MyValutek system. The Valutek Loyalty Program is free: there is no cost to become a member, only intent-to-purchase requirements.

“We want to thank our loyal customers and encourage them to look at our entire product offering,” adds Coraggio. “To put it simply, the more you work with us, the more you will save.” For more information on the Loyalty Program, contact a Sales Executive at 800.763.1250 or through www.valutek.com.
